RULES & REGULATIONS OF THE NORTH PLAINFIELD VERMEULE COMMUNITY CENTER

The use of the North Plainfield Vermeule Community Center ("the Center") is permitted at the discretion of the Mayor and Administration. Usage privileges may be denied or revoked if the following Rules & Regulations are not adhered to.

Groups or organizations requesting usage must be predominantly North Plainfield residents or provide a service to its residents.

All adult supervisors of activities involving minors are required by the Borough of North Plainfield to submit, prior to their event, a complete background check.

Fundraisers are not permitted for private gain.

Reservations are accepted up to one year in advance. For recurring events, the schedule (dates and times) must be provided to Administration or Recreation prior to the first activity.

The Center may be closed due to weather or other circumstances that are beyond our control. During weather emergencies, if the schools are closed, the Center will also be closed and all events cancelled.

Applicants are responsible to contact Administration or Recreation in the event that their scheduled use is cancelled.

All activities held at the Center must cease and rooms put back to their original state by 11pm.

Maximum occupancy limits must be complied with as posted by the Fire Department.

All Borough ordinances and rules of the Police and Fire Departments regarding public assemblies must be complied with.

The Center is a smoke-free facility.

The Center may not be used for private parties.

No drugs or weapons or sale of such items is permitted.

All applicants are responsible for the conduct of their participants/guests while at the Center.

Use of the Center does not include Borough staff setting up prior to or cleaning up after an event.

The Center does not have daily custodial service. The applicant is responsible for setup/breakdown and clean-up of any room(s) used at the Center.

For all events, garbage and recyclables are to be taken to the appropriate dumpsters in the parking lot.

The Center shall be left in good condition. If the room is found to be damaged or dirty upon arrival, this should be reported to Administration.

Nothing belonging to the Center is to be removed.

Items shall not be left in the kitchen or other areas of the Center unless arranged with Administration.

No food/drinks or arts/crafts are permitted in the Conference Room.

Any planned movies, audio, video, stage or other artistic or theatrical performances must bear a rating of G, PG, PG-13 or equivalent for suitable use at this community facility. Advertising or promotional materials must include such rating information.

Any questions/concerns should be brought to Administration.

Any injuries or damages that occur during use of the Center must be reported to 908 769-2900. Ext. 2965

Those using the Center shall be held liable for damage, missing items and cleanup and can be assessed labor and material fees to cover costs.
